REPORT

According to the Gage County Sheriff's Office, investigation indicates that Ernest Kubr, 54 of Filley, was moving a dirt pile with the tractor and for unknown reasons lost control, causing it to roll down a hill and fall on top of him. First responders pronounced Kubr dead on location after attempting life saving measures at the scene. He was alone at the time and was found by his fiancée. No foul play, drugs or alcohol were suspected to be the cause of the accident. Next of kin were notified.
